

CURRICULUM VITAE—AIDAN KEHOE

Name: Dr Aidan Kehoe, BA (Mod), MB, BCh, BAO

Born: 18th March 1981, Wexford, Republic of Ireland

Address:

Apartment 3
Killea Business Park
Kildrum Upper Killea
Co. Donegal

Tel: +353 85 1343873

Email: <kehoea@parhasard.net>

Work Experience (Medicine):

- July 2015–July 2019: GP trainee, Donegal Specialist Training Scheme in General Practice.
- January 2014–present: Locum doctor, primarily in Emergency Medicine, various hospitals in the Republic and Northern Ireland, including South West Acute Hospital, Enniskillen, the Ulster, Sligo Regional Hospital, Connolly Hospital Blanchardstown.
- July 2018–July 2019: GP Registrar, Manorcunningham Health Centre, Co Donegal, under the supervision of Mr John Dowling (MICGP, FRCSI).
- January 2018–July 2018: GP Registrar, Lifford Health Centre, Lifford, Co Donegal, under Dr Paul Armstrong’s supervision.
- July 2017–January 2018: GP Registrar, Clonmany Medical Centre, Clonmany, Co Donegal, under Dr Frank Fogarty’s supervision.
- March 2017–July 2017: SHO in Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Letterkenny University Hospital.
- November 2016–March 2017: SHO in Old Age Psychiatry, Dr Clifford Haley’s service, Letterkenny University Hospital.
- July 2016–November 2016: Paediatrics SHO, Letterkenny University Hospital.
- March 2016–July 2016: Emergency Medicine SHO, Letterkenny University Hospital.
- November 2015–March 2016: Geriatrics SHO, Dr José Miranda’s team, Letterkenny University Hospital.
- July 2015–November 2015: Respiratory SHO, Dr Vera Keating’s service, Letterkenny General Hospital.
- July 2014–January 2015: Full time ED SHO, Mater Misericordiae University Hospital, Eccles Street, Dublin 7.
- January 2013–July 2013: Intern doctor, University Hospital Galway; Cardiology then Respiratory (Prof. Gilmartin’s service).

- July 2012–January 2013: Intern doctor, Letterkenny General Hospital; initially on Dr Steele’s Gastroenterology service and then Mr Sugrue’s Breast and General Surgery service.

Education:

- MICGP Modified Essay Question, passed March 2018. MICGP Core Knowledge Test, passed.
- FRCEM Intermediate SAQ (equivalent to MCEM Part B), passed September 2018. Membership of the College of Emergency Medicine (MCEM) Part A, passed.
- 2008–2012, Graduate Entry Medicine, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.
- 2.1 degree, Computer Science, Linguistics and French, Trinity College Dublin, 2002.

Skills:

- Medical doctor, experience chiefly in Emergency Medicine and General Practice. Irish Medical Council registration 406484, GMC registration number 7507900.
- Fluent German, three years spent in Berlin, working through German, following two years’ formal study of the language; one month’s work experience at the Salzburger Landeskliniken, the main hospital of Salzburg, Austria.
- Fluent French—one year spent studying at the Université Catholique de Louvain through French, 19 months spent working in a French-speaking environment in total.
- Conversational Spanish, 2 years of evening classes, 5 years conversation exchanges. Basic Brazilian Portuguese.
- Conversational Persian, significant exposure and practice in personal life, attended a language course at the Dehroda Institute, Tehran, Iran, 2012.
- Software developer, languages: C, Perl, PHP, Javascript, Emacs Lisp.

Publications and conference presentations:

- November 2016: Poster presented at the Letterkenny Research Symposium, on “Negative D-dimers and delayed presentation: was ED discharge appropriate?”
- May 2016: Audit, “Time in Therapeutic range in patients with atrial fibrillation receiving warfarin”, Letterkenny University Hospital (contributed).
- April 2012: Poster presented at the Irish Society of Gastroenterology Spring Meeting, on an audit of Dr. Subhasish Sengupta’s Dundalk and Drogheda endoscopy patients (contributed).

References are available on request.